NEW BUSINESS

Massage Establishment Regulation

The board reviewed the draft of Regulation 12.0 pertaining to massage establishments. The board went through each subsection and discussed possible changes. The members of the public offered comments. Division Director David Mangler also addressed the Board. In particular, the Board discussed the following: Definitions of “dormitory,” “massage establishment,” and “sexual activity;” amendments to specify that massage technicians are certified; adding “or contractor” to references to employees; clarification of permissible hours of operation; posting of licenses; the presence of a licensee in the establishment; and deletion of subsection 12.6.5 pertaining to posting a list of services provided. The Board agreed that discussion of the draft would be resumed at October’s meeting.

OTHER BUSINESS (for discussion only)
